Pointers & Setters Champion Stake 2025 report

By Jon Kean

The 2025 Royal Kennel Club's Champion Stake for Pointers and Setters has been won by 4 year old Irish Setter bitch FTCh Coldcoats Ginny for the second time in 2 years. Ginny's handler, Steve Robinson from Northumberland, has now won the championship four times and he bred last year's winner, FTCh Coldcoats Reggie. It's a remarkable record by any standards.

In football parlance it is the Cup Final for the country's top Pointers and Setters. The premier event is revered as the most prestigious event on the field trial calendar for bird dogs and is one of the oldest sporting events of its kind in the United Kingdom.

On Grouse moors, Pointers and Setters are known for their hunting power, their grace, their beauty, their athleticism, their drive and stamina. This year's championship was held at Bollihope Moor, County Durham, by kind permission of His Highness Sheikh Mohammad Al Maktoum and his Head Keeper, Peter Fawcett. Bollihope, at 12,600 acres, is one of the best grouse moors in the UK. This year I witnessed many coveys of full-grown healthy Grouse. The championship was hosted by the International Gundog League Pointer and Setter Society on behalf of the Royal Kennel Club, and judged by three A Panel Judges; Fiona Kirk, Gerry Devine and Dominic Goutorbe. The 2025 Championship attracted competitors from throughout the UK and Ireland. The Championship programme consisted of 28 Pointers, 15 Irish Setters, 4 English Setters and 1 Gordon Setter. On the day, 21 brace took to the field. The Champion Stake is held in alternate years by the International Gundog League Pointer and Setter Society and the Scottish Field Trials Association. Since 2006, the Champion Stake in Scotland took place at Byrecleugh Estate on the Lammermuir Hills in the Scottish Borders.

At Bollihope, it was evident right from the word go that there were good coveys on the ground. The first brace featured 2 Irish setters – Kim Brown's Shanrycon Dexter and Steve Robinson's Bownard Everest. Kim's setter had a very stylish point on a covey which she produced in classical fashion. Kim was awarded the Ladies Trophy for the most stylish dog in the first round of the Champion Stake.

Before lunchtime, many coveys pitched in ahead on the beat and it proved to be a minefield for many of the dogs. Four and a half brace were called back for the second round.

Terry Harris, from County Durham, was in action throughout the trial. He handled 5 Pointers – so it was a busy day at the office for Terry! In the second round, Terry and Maria Jacques had a good find on a pack on the right wing of the beat with Pointer bitch FTCh Sparkfield Sidekick.

Two Pointers and an Irish Setter from Ireland were in the shake up during the second round – Davy O'Neill's Pointer bitch FTCh Crahan Amber at Shanrycon, and James Coyle's Pointer dog Sionmills Captain of Koram, handled by Michael Houston. Bill Connolly's Irish setter bitch Ballyellen April had an excellent find on a single bird.

Two dogs were called forward for an extension to the second round – Maria Jacques Sparkfield Airstream and Steve Robinson's FTCh Coldcoats Ginny. With that, the Judges' closed their books on the Championship. Conditions on the day were perfect for the Pointers and Setters.

The keeping staff led by Head Keeper Peter Fawcett did a brilliant job on the day.

The roll of honour reveals that the first Champion Stake took place in 1869. Records stretching back to then makes fascinating reading.

The name of Isaac Sharpe appears 3 years in succession. A great sportsman and excellent shot, Mr Sharpe won the Champion Stake with his Pointer dog Stylish Touchstone in 1921, 1922 and 1923. There is exceptional footage on British Pathe from the 1930s of Mr Sharpe's Pointers and Setters. The film is entitled "Helpmates of the Guns!"

Isaac Sharpe had one of the largest kennels of Pointers and Setters in the world. He bought an empty Speyside distillery at Keith in Banffshire and rebuilt it into a large kennel. British Pathe film archives have truly amazing film footage of his kennels filmed in the 1930s and it shows hundreds of Pointers and Setters being exercised by Mr Sharpe's trainers and kennelmen. At the time, Mr Sharpe stated: "It takes 10 carcasses of beef, a ton of biscuits, half a ton of Indian meal, one ton of potatoes and one ton of turnips every week to feed this pack.” Isaac Sharpe was one of the most significant bird dog breeders in history, both the size of his kennel operation and with the legacy he left behind. While he probably became most famous for his Stylish pointers, he also made huge contributions to the breeding of English, Irish and Gordon setters as well as field spaniels.

Another great fieldsports enthusiast was Lady Auckland of Cromlix in Perthshire. Lady Auckland's Pointer dogs Swift of Cromlix and Lark of Cromlix won the Champion Stake in 1960 and 1963. Four years later her kennel manager and trainer Angus McLaughlin, handled Pointer dog Swallow of Cromlix to win the Championship. Perhaps the greatest achievement in the Champion Stake goes to Lord Arthur Rank, founder of the Rank Organisation.

His Scotney Pointers won the Champion Stake on 9 occasions – a quite remarkable record. The Sharnberry English Setters, owned by landowner Captain W Parlour, feature no less than 5 times on the Roll of Honour. Over the last 30 years, one other person who has won the Champion Stake on six different occasions is Richard MacNicol from Halkirk in Caithness – the most recent win in 2021 with Tressady Estate owner Monsieur Laurent Hild's Pointer bitch FTCh Langwell Kerry of Morness. Billy and Penny Darragh have had huge success with their Irish Setters and Gordon Setters winning the championship 5 times. Two other handlers have won the Championship on three separate occasions – Pointer men Terry Harris and Wilson Young.

In the 18th and 19th centuries it was the custom to hunt and shoot feathered game over Pointers and Setters and kennels of working Pointers and Setters were maintained by many Estate owners. In 1865 a group of pointer and setter owners met on the Estate of Sir Samuel Whitbread in Bedfordshire and created the sport of field trials for gundogs. These, with other owners, subsequently formed the National Pointer and Setter Society. This Society inaugurated the Champion Stake which was held at its meeting on 28th and 29th April 1869 on the Moreton Corbet Estate near Shrewsbury. When the National Pointer and Setter Society ceased to exist after its field trial in 1938, the Scottish Field Trials Association and the International Gundog League Pointer and Setter Society mutually agreed to promote the Champion Stake, with the approval of the Royal Kennel Club, each of these organisations promoting this stake in alternate years, initially the SFTA on grouse and the IGL on partridge in September at Sutton Scotney. After Lord Rank died this ground was not available. Partridge stocks were declining so it was decided to run the IGL Champion Stake on grouse, the first grouse trial being held on Bollihope Moor in 1973.

The title of Field Trial Champion was not introduced by the Royal Kennel Club until December 1898. The Champion Stake was not promoted between 1901 and 1903 due to the Boer War. The First World War prevented its running between 1915-1920 and the Second World War meant there was no Champion Stake between 1940 and 1949.

There is no greater sight than a brace of pointers and setters hunting a moor with pace and style in search of red grouse. William Arkwright's famous book The Pointer and his Predecessors (1906) captures what it is like to work with these beautiful gundogs on a day's walked-up shooting. Arkwright states: "The chief glory of the sport is to shoot over a brace of raking pointers, matched with speed and style, sweeping over the rough places like swallows, and passing each other as if they were fine ladies not introduced. Let one of them get a point and the other will, as if connected by invisible wire, instantly point at him (i.e., back him). And as the pointing dog advances to make sure of the birds, the backer will do the same – often with an absolute mimicry of his leader's movements."

As set out in the Royal Kennel Club regulations for Pointers and Setters, the basic requirements are as follows: "Dogs shall be required to quarter ground systematically with pace and style in search of gamebirds, to point gamebirds, to be steady to flush and shot and, where applicable, to fall. Dogs should not be gun shy. The dog should work its point out freely, on command without the handler either touching the dog or moving in front of it". Sounds easy, but in practice can be very difficult.

In recent years, a 3-judge system was introduced by the Royal Kennel Club Field Trials Committee for the Champion Stake.

The qualifications for the 2025 Champion Stake - For Pointer and Setters which have won a First or Second award in Open Stakes or a First award in an Open Breed Stake since 30 July 2023. The winner and runner up in the 2023 and 2024 Champion Stakes and the winner of the 2025 Royal Kennel Club Puppy Derby Stake are entitled to run. The 2024 winner of the Irish Championship for Pointers and Setters is eligible to compete. A recent addition is the winner of the 2025 Partridge Challenge Stake.

Here are some interesting facts about Red Grouse. Grouse are often referred to as being the King of Game Birds. They are very territorial and are one of the few indigenous species of game bird in the UK. Grouse can live up to eight years old. Grouse eat predominately Ling heather and other heathers, berries and seeds. Grit must be eaten every day to aid the digestion of the tough heather. The incubation period is 22 days, and the grouse chicks depend on insects. Grouse can be fully grown in 35 days and the chicks can fly at between 12 and 18 days. Grouse are regarded as a sedentary species; most grouse live and die within 1 mile of where they were hatched. Diseases which can affect a grouse population – namely strongyle worm, sheep tick and louping ill virus.

Grouse counts are carried out in March before nesting begins when birds are well established in their territories. The same areas (selection of beats) are counted every year. Some estates have these areas marked out permanently. Dogs are used to flush the pairs of Grouse which are then recorded in a book. Care is taken that the same birds are not counted twice. The same areas are then counted in July to establish how well the birds have bred. Careful records are kept of the sizes of coveys that are flushed, especially the numbers of young birds. Counts from previous years can be compared. Possible numbers of days shooting can then be predicted, and having long term records help build up the capital value of the moor.

On the Glorious Twelfth – the 12th of August each year – some of the field trailers will head to grouse moors in the UK to shoot grouse over their dogs. It's called walked up shooting over Pointers and Setters. The 2026 Champion Stake for Pointers and Setters will be held at Burncastle Estate in the Scottish Borders in August next year by kind permission of the Duke of Northumberland.

The Royal Kennel Club HPR Championship

The 23rd HPR Championship was held at Emblehope & Burngrange Estate on 14 and 15 November 2025. Generously sponsored by Skinner's, BASC - The British Association for Shooting and Conservation and Sporting Saint - Gundog Training Equipment.

A fantastic two days trialling with difficult conditions, but some lovely dog work. The judges, Peter Howard and Mark Spearing worked the field out expertly, the beat was well set by Headkeeper Raymond Holt, and great shooting by the experienced gun team led to well deserved awards.

The full report on The HPR Championship will be available in the next edition of the Field Trials Newsletter.

The Royal Kennel Club Open AV HPR and Novice AV HPR Stake

The Royal Kennel Club Novice & Open HPR field trials were held on 28 & 29 October respectively at Roxby Estate by kind permission of Mr M Taylor and sponsored by Skinner's.

The mixed terrain moorland was the perfect setting for the wide ranging dogs to prove their hunting, pointing and retrieving skills, all ably judged by Mr L Loveridge and Mr S Pleasance.

The brisk wind conditions tested the hunting techniques of both dogs and handlers, and the mixed game bag of grouse, pheasant and woodcock lead to some challenging and skilful flushes and retrieves over the two days. Congratulations to all in the awards.

The awards were as follows for the Open Stake:

1st Place - FTCh Sutchest Isla

German Shorthaired Pointer, owned and handled by Mr Jim Bird

Gun's Choice - Vizellven Eks Wizard

Hungarian Vizsla, owned by Mr & Mrs Froome, handled by Mr Jason Froome.

Amendments to Field Trials J Regulations

[NOTE: All regulation changes for the forthcoming season are listed in the back pages of the J Regulation booklets for reference]

The following regulation amendment has been approved and becomes effective on 2 February 2026:

J(B)7d(5) - Trial ProcedureTO:

When a Judge tries his dogs, for example No. 1 & No. 2, behind other dogs, if No. 1 dog is successful, then the next retrieve under that Judge should be offered to No. 2 dog. The back up dog in line must always have the first opportunity of an eye-wipe over its partner, irrespective of which round it is in. Lower round dogs should not be called over from the other side until after this dog has been given its chance

If the two dogs fail on game, the Judge should not call fresh dogs into the line to try for the retrieve until all the other dogs already in the line have been tried.

(Insertion in bold)

The Gundog Working Test regulations have been reviewed and as a result the following regulation amendments have been approved and become effective on 2 February 2026:

J(G)1.b - IntroductionTO:

~~No title used to describe the winners of GWTs will be associated with such competition which is best understood as a means to an end rather than an end in itself.~~

Gundog Working Tests should be conducted in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, welcoming to newcomers as well as being a test of the progress of a Gundog's training for the shooting field and field trials.

No titles are to be used for the winners of Gundog Working Tests.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)1.e - IntroductionTO:

Application for authority to hold GWTs must be made annually to the Royal Kennel Club and, ~~on the form provided~~, applicants should indicate the number of GWTs they propose to hold in the forthcoming year.

(Deletion struck through)

J(G)2.a(2) - Definition of Gundog Working Tests (GWT)TO:

~~Sporting~~ Spaniels other than Irish Water Spaniels.

(Deletion struck through)

J(G)2.b(3)- Definition of Gundog Working Tests (GWT)

TO:

PUPPY. Open ~~Confined to all dogs of specific breed or breeds less than eighteen months of age on the date of the test~~ regardless of awards gained.

(Insertion in bold)

J(G)2.b(4) - Definition of Gundog Working Tests (GWT)

TO:

NOVICE DOG/NOVICE HANDLER. Confined to dog and handler who have not gained any award in a field trial or classified GWT or won a Novice Dog/Novice Handler test.

(Insertion in bold)

(Subsequent regulation to be renumbered)

J(G)3.d - Organisation of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

The organisers of GWTs will try, wherever possible, to simulate the circumstances of a shooting day. They must also ensure the tests are designed to further good Gundog work, and not inhibit dogs from marking or showing natural working ability. It is important, for instance, that guns and dummy throwers are positioned with such considerations in mind, and that distances of retrieves and difficulty of test are achievable and relevant to the standard (e.g. puppy, novice, open). Organisers may set tests in advance, using non-competing dogs of the same standard to ensure this.

(Insertion in bold)

J(G)3.g- Organisation of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

Only dummies acceptable to the judges, will be used for retrieves in GWTs. The same type of dummy must be used within each exercise.

(Insertion in bold)

J(G)3.h - Organisation of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

When dummies are thrown in association with gunfire in retrieving tests, the shot must always precede the thrown dummy with the gun pointing in the direction of where the dummy is to be thrown. The gun should be positioned within 'shot range' of a plausible distance from the retrieve. With unseen retrieves gunfire is optional.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)4.g - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

All judges must have considerable experience of dog-work under shooting field conditions and competition.

(Insertion in bold)

J(G)4.b - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

The Code of Conduct expected at GWTs is the same as that for Field Trials. The Code of Conduct documents can be found on the Royal Kennel Club website.

(Insertion in bold)

J(G)4.h - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

In an Open Gundog Working Test (GWT), ~~each sub-group~~ there must have-be at least one Royal Kennel Club Field Trial Panel Judge from the relevant sub-group officiating. In all other GWT's a Royal Kennel Club Field Trial Panel Judge should officiate, if possible.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)4.i - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

The officiating judges must be announced to all competitors.

(Insertion in bold)

(Subsequent regulations to be renumbered)

J(G)4.j - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

Each GWT day must have a minimum of 2 judges.

(Insertion in bold)

(Subsequent regulations to be renumbered)

J(G)4.k (previously J(G)4.i) - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

All handlers must carry out the instructions of the judges. The judges are empowered to remove from the test any dog whose handler does not follow their instructions or whose handler willfully interferes with another competitor or ~~his~~ their dog.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)4.p (previously J(G)4.n) - Conduct of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

No competitor may withdraw their dog and leave the GWT ground without informing the ~~chief steward~~ Test Secretary or a Club Official.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)3.j - Organisation of Gundog Working Tests

TO:

Organisers and judges must be careful for the safety of dogs and must not require them to negotiate dangerous obstacles. Whilst judges should take reasonable precautions for the safety of competing dogs, it is the duty of the handler to satisfy ~~himself or herself~~ themselves that the dog is suitably trained, physically fit and prepared to undertake the work allocated by the judges before directing ~~his or her~~ their dog to undertake the allotted task.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)6.a(1) - Instructions for specific sub-group tests (Retrievers)

TO:

~~At the start of a GWT, judges must ensure they have the correct dogs in the line, lowest number placed on the right.~~ A handler must ensure that only the number of the dog being handled at the time is displayed. It is the responsibility of the handler if handling more than one dog, to ensure that their dogs are being run in the correct order when competing.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

J(G)6.a(2) - Instructions for specific sub-group tests (Retrievers)

TO:

A Retriever must be steady to shot and fall and must retrieve only on command. ~~Also, whenever possible, all dogs should be tested at a simulated drive, walking up and in water.~~

Whenever possible, all dogs should be tested in water. Except in Puppy and Novice Dog/Novice Handler GWTs, dogs should be tested either at a simulated drive and/ or a walk up. A dog must walk steadily at heel and retrieve tenderly to hand.

(Insertion in bold. Deletion struck through)

Deer at a Field Trial

Following some confusion regarding the flushing of deer during trials, we wish to remind judges and competitors that at a trial the dog should not be actively hunting for deer scent, and therefore a dog should not be credited for a point or flush on a non-quarry species that would contribute to an award. However, the steadiness of the dog should be merited.

The Royal Kennel Club Journal

Outcomes of Disciplinary Committee objections are published in the Royal Kennel Club Journal. The following 2025 Journals contain relevant information regarding Field Trials Disciplinary outcomes.

Code of Conduct

The Field Trials Committee wish to remind competitors of the standards of conduct which are required at Royal Kennel Club licenced events. This is detailed in the Code of Conduct which is available on the Royal Kennel Club website -
