Dog owners warned to 'Look before you leap'

as three in four would risk their own safety to save their dog

New research from the Royal Kennel Club and RNLI reveals the life-threatening risks dog owners would go to if their dog got into trouble in the water.

Almost three-quarters (74%) of dog owners surveyed say they would enter the water to rescue their dog even if doing so put their own safety at risk, new research from the Royal Kennel Club has revealed, prompting the organisations to urge dog owners to "Look Before You Leap" this autumn.

© RNLI

Of those who said they would enter the water, almost a quarter (23%) have done so in the past, while a further 51% say they would do so if faced with the situation in future.

The warning comes as the RNLI sees a seasonal rise in dog rescues, with October averaging more dog rescues than August over recent years. In 2025 alone, RNLI lifeboat crews launched to 167 dogs.

The RNLI is warning dog owners that entering the water after a dog can put their own life at risk. Its Water Safety team advises owners not to enter the sea after their dog, but instead to move to a safe place where the dog can get out and call them. If the dog is unable to get out, owners should call 999 or 112 and ask for the Coastguard.

The Royal Kennel Club's research, conducted by Censuswide among 2,000 UK adults, also suggests there are misconceptions around dogs' natural swimming ability. Almost a third (31%) of Brits believe that all dogs naturally know how to swim, while a further 38% believe that some breeds can naturally swim, but others cannot. The Royal Kennel Club is urging owners to check their dog's confidence and ability in water before allowing them to swim in open water, as not all dogs will instinctively know how to swim or feel comfortable in the water. A dog's first experiences of water are particularly important, and owners should never force a dog into the water if they are reluctant or distressed.

Owners should introduce dogs to water gradually and, where appropriate, start in calm, shallow water, allowing them to become comfortable at their own pace. They should also consider the conditions and environment before allowing their dog to enter, including water temperature, currents, underwater hazards, steep or difficult-to-exit banks and potential hazards such as blue-green algae.

The survey also highlighted the number of dogs regularly exposed to open-water environments. Almost half (49%) of dog owners take their dog to places with open water, including beaches, rivers, lakes and canals, at least once a month.

Dog owners warned to 'Look before you leap'

More than a third (36%) of owners who take their dog to places with open water say their dog enters or swims in the water every time or most of the time.

The Royal Kennel Club and RNLI are urging dog owners to follow four simple steps around open water:

1. Make sure your dog is confident in water before letting them swim. Not all dogs automatically know how to swim, so owners should make sure their dog is comfortable and confident in the water before allowing them to enter.
2. Keep your dog on a lead when near cliff edges or fast-flowing rivers.
3. If your dog enters the water or gets stuck in mud, don't go after them. Move to a place they can get to safely and call them - they may be able to get out by themselves.
4. Never enter the sea after your dog. Call 999 or 112 and ask for the Coastguard.

Jannine Edgar, Chief Executive, Royal Kennel Club said: "As dog owners, we have a responsibility to understand our dogs as individuals and to think ahead about the environments we take them into. While many dogs enjoy swimming, it shouldn't be assumed that every dog will instinctively know how to swim or feel confident in the water.

"Before allowing your dog into open water, make sure you know they are comfortable and confident in it, and consider the conditions and hazards around you. Responsible dog ownership is about giving our dogs the freedom to enjoy new experiences safely, while knowing when a situation could put them, or us, at risk.

> "In 2025, the RNLI launched to 167 dogs alone

© RNLI

"Our research highlights both the misconceptions that still exist around dogs and water, and just how strong the instinct can be to help our pets when they are in trouble.

"The Look Before You Leap campaign is about helping owners understand those risks before an emergency happens, so they can make informed decisions that keep both themselves and their dogs safe."

For anyone who does find themselves in trouble in the water, the RNLI also advises people to Float to Live:

1. Tilt your head back, submerging your ears.
2. Relax and try to control your breathing.
3. Move your hands and legs to help you stay afloat.
4. Your legs may sink, but that's OK - everyone floats differently.
5. Find your float by practising at a supervised location, such as your local swimming pool.

Kate Eardley, RNLI Head of Global Drowning Prevention, said: "We understand it is incredibly upsetting to see your dog in distress. However, please do not enter the sea to go after your dog. If you move to a place where your dog can safely get to and call them, they will often find their own way out of the water. If they are unable to, please call 999 or 112 and ask for the Coastguard.

"In 2025, the RNLI launched to 167 dogs alone. Our lifeboat crews will always launch to your beloved pets, and we ask that you prioritise your safety in this situation."

Crufts 2027 main events announced as entries set to open in November

The event schedule for Crufts 2027 has been announced, with the world's greatest dog show returning to the NEC, Birmingham, from 4-7 March 2027. Online entries will open on Tuesday 17 November 2026, with group judging taking place across the four days as follows:

Thursday 4 March: Gundog
Friday 5 March: Working and Pastoral
Saturday 6 March: Terrier and Hound
Sunday 7 March: Utility and Toy

The schedule includes yet again the diverse competitions to celebrate all dogs - from agility and working dogs right through to Best in Show.

Following their debut at Crufts in 2026, dog grooming competitions will return for a second year in 2027, this time in Hall 3. In partnership with Artero, the competitions will bring together talented grooming professionals from across the UK and beyond, from emerging talent to experienced experts, to celebrate the skill, creativity and precision behind the profession. Entries opened on Wednesday 14 October 2026, with further details to be announced in the coming weeks.

Alongside the new additions, changes for Crufts 2027 will offer greater flexibility for exhibitors and help make the show experience more manageable for dogs and the people showing them.

From Crufts 2027, exhibitors will be able to remove their dogs from the NEC from 3pm each day, bringing the permitted removal time forward by one hour from 4pm.

The change follows feedback from exhibitors and will give those who wish to begin their journeys home earlier greater flexibility, including to help manage travel arrangements and traffic. The revised time will continue to balance exhibitors' needs with the experience of visitors, helping to ensure there are dogs at their benches and in the rings for visitors to see throughout the day.

Jannine Edgar, Chief Executive of Royal Kennel Club said: "Crufts is constantly evolving to reflect the needs and interests of our community, while staying true to what makes it such a special event for dogs and the people who love them. The health and wellbeing of dogs always remains at the heart of everything we do, and we are committed to ensuring Crufts continues to provide a positive experience for dogs, exhibitors and visitors alike.

"We're also pleased to build on the success of our inaugural dog grooming competitions in 2026, with their return in a dedicated space in Hall 3.

"Alongside these additions, we've listened to feedback from exhibitors and introduced practical changes, including an earlier dog removal time. Together, these developments reflect our commitment to evolving Crufts in a way that supports our community, celebrates our relationship with dogs and puts their health and welfare first."

Strengthening Crufts for 2027

As part of an ongoing review of the standards and processes surrounding Crufts, the Royal Kennel Club (RKC) is introducing a number of additional protections ahead of Crufts 2027.

We know that the vast majority of people who compete at Crufts care deeply about their dogs and are committed to the highest standards of welfare and responsible participation.

The new measures build on the existing standards and regulatory framework and are designed to strengthen confidence and reassurance in the competition, support dog welfare and provide additional protection for everyone taking part.

What is changing?

From Crufts 2027:

New voluntary declarations

We are requesting that all breed exhibitors and judges taking part in Crufts complete a voluntary declaration in respect of any previous animal welfare convictions.

Further information about the declaration and how it will be completed will be provided ahead of the Crufts 2027 entry process.

DBS checks for Group and Best in Show judges

Group and Best in Show judges also need to complete a DBS check, which the RKC will fund. These sit alongside existing DBS checks for Young Royal Kennel Club (YRKC) judges, and where appropriate - volunteers who support this activity.

New veterinary health checks for all Best of Breed winners

The health and wellbeing of dogs is something we all care deeply about.

© Lisa Croft-Elliott, Royal Kennel Club

As part of our ongoing commitment to breed health and welfare, we are strengthening the veterinary checks carried out on all Best of Breed (BOB) winners.

From Crufts 2027, all BOB winners will be required to undergo a Veterinary Health Check in a dedicated Health Screening Centre before progressing to the Group competition. This new measure builds on the existing veterinary checks already in place at Crufts and reinforces our shared commitment to the health and welfare of dogs competing at the show. More information on what the test includes, where it takes place and a selection of FAQs are available on our dedicated web page.

An ongoing programme

These measures are part of an ongoing programme of review and development. The RKC will continue to listen to the dog community, review its processes and consider further measures where they can strengthen welfare, integrity and confidence in Crufts. Further developments will be considered ahead of Crufts 2028.

New Royal Kennel Club ceramics exhibition explores the ancient myths and stories behind beloved dog breeds.

'Cultured Canines', opened at the Royal Kennel Club Art Gallery in London on 30 September bringing together a capsule exhibition featuring 12 ceramic works and drawings by contemporary artist Allison Ksiazkiewicz, inspired by the ceramics of the ancient Mediterranean world and the cultural meaning attached to twelve different dog breeds.

From the ancient world to modern Britain, the exhibition explores the many ways dogs have become intertwined with human history as companions, working animals, symbols of status and figures within the stories and cultures of the people who lived alongside them.

The twelve different dog breeds include the Chihuahua, Saluki, King Charles Spaniel, Newfoundland, Norwegian Lundehund and Skye Terrier, a British vulnerable native breed which originated in Scotland.

Allison combines ancient ceramic techniques and manufacturing processes with original contemporary designs.

Each piece is named after a person who was influential to that breed of dog historically, with their story told across the surface of each distinctive Attic-style ceramic vessel.

Allison Ksiazkiewicz said: "Our companionship with dogs has a long and winding history. While scientists date the earliest known co-burial of human and canine to 15,000 years ago, evidence also suggests the existence of a cross-species relationship beginning some 17,000 years previous, when the wolf and dog separated genetically. Modern dog breeds are defined by their specific historical and contemporary human-canine relationships. Cultured Canines encourages us to consider how the histories and lives of animals are perceived, and to appreciate the actual and imagined roles animals play in our lives."

©Allison Ksiazkiewicz

Ciara Farrell, Culture and Heritage Manager at the Royal Kennel Club, said: "The return of The Odyssey has reminded us how deeply ancient stories continue to shape our culture, and dogs have been part of those stories and traditions for centuries, from the faithful Argos in The Odyssey to countless works of art throughout history.

"We love how 'Cultured Canines' explores this enduring relationship from a different perspective, looking at the individual histories and cultural identities that have developed around several very different breeds of dogs. It is a rare and fascinating opportunity to see how the stories we tell about dogs have evolved over time, while celebrating the remarkable place they continue to hold in our lives and culture."

Ksiazkiewicz's practice is inspired by natural history, archaeology and landscape to explore the ways we connect to each other and the natural world.

Ksiazkiewicz has exhibited work in the UK and across Canada, including at the Museum of Classical Archaeology (Cambridge), Ashmolean Museum (Oxford) and Open Studio (Toronto).

The Cultured Canines exhibition will run until 31 March 2027 at the Royal Kennel Club Art Gallery in London.

The gallery is open Monday to Friday, from 9.30am to 4.30pm, by appointment. To book a visit, please email artgallery@royalkennelclub.com

Agility Team GB wins two gold medals at Agility World Championships in Finland

Agility Team GB is celebrating taking home two gold medals and one silver medal at the FCI Agility World Championships, which took place in Turku, Finland, on 22-27 September.

The championships brought together over 530 of the world's top agility athletes from 38 countries, including 16 British handlers and 21 dogs, competing across the Small, Medium, Intermediate and Large categories.

The Agility Team GB Large and Small teams both claimed gold, while Agility Team GB's Martin Reid secured silver in the Individual Small competition for the third consecutive year. The medals marked Agility Team GB's first of 2026 after the European Open was cancelled earlier this year.

Agility Team GB's full medal tally was:

GOLD MEDALS

Team Large:

- Dave Munnings, from Bicester, Oxfordshire, and his Border Collie, Legacy (Ag Ch Comebyanaway Wot A Legacy)
- Martin Reid, from Leamington Spa, Warwickshire, and his Border Collie, Shape (Ag Ch Lilhaze Spring Into Shape)
- Shannon Springford, from Sittingbourne, Kent, and her Border Collie, Banter (Ag Ch Zhanisgo Give It Some Banter)
- Naarah Cuddy, from Leamington Spa, Warwickshire, and her Border Collie, Banana (Ag Ch Runbye Goin Bananas)

The team secured gold after finishing first in both the Jumping and Agility rounds.

Team Small:

- Katrina Hands, from Forfar, Angus, and her Shetland Sheepdog, Sizzle (Ag Ch Set the Pace of Summergarden)
- Liz Naylor, from Whitchurch, Shropshire, and her Working Cocker Spaniel, Skye (Ag Ch Devongem Bright Skye at Hornspike)

- Martin Reid, from Leamington Spa, Warwickshire, and his Shetland Sheepdog, Selfie (Ag Ch Get It With Eager To Work)
- Dylan Osborne, from Aberdeenshire, and his Cocker Spaniel, Jelly (Ag Ch Well Jelly Baby)

The team secured gold after placing second in the Jumping round and first in the Agility round.

SILVER MEDAL

- Individual Small: Martin Reid and his Shetland Sheepdog Selfie (Ag Ch Get It With Eager To Work)

Martin claimed his silver medal after placing first in the Small Agility class and seventh in the Jumping Class.

The team were also successful in the individual classes, with Naarah Cuddy and Banana placing third in the Large Individual Jumping, while Shannon Springford and Halloumi (I'm Feeling Cheesy with Eager to Work) placed second in the Small Individual Agility.

Agility Team GB Manager, Greg Derrett, said: "With the EO being cancelled earlier this year, the AWC was Agility Team GB's one opportunity to deliver medals in 2026. The hard work and commitment that went into the team's preparation resulted in some phenomenal performances, both in the overall medal standings and in individual class results.

"This group of handlers has pulled together with an incredible team spirit, and it has been a pleasure to be their Team Manager.

"The obvious highlights are the two gold medals achieved in a single afternoon, but while we didn't medal in every height, it is hugely satisfying to see just how competitive we are across all four classes."

Agility Team GB is sponsored by Antinol, DogSports Derby and Galican.

Elise Finney, Canine Community and Partnerships Coordinator for Antinol UK, said: "Antinol UK is incredibly proud to have supported Agility Team GB as they competed at the Agility World Championships. Seeing these partnerships rise to the occasion and demonstrate exceptional skill and teamwork has been truly inspiring.

"On behalf of everyone at Antinol UK, we congratulate the team on their performances and for representing Great Britain with such passion and commitment. It is an honour to support them on their journey."

Sue Finnett

SEMINARS:
- Points of The Dog
- Conformation and Movement

E: sue.finnett@icloud.com
T: 07768 642211

She practised with her own Deerhounds and racing Greyhounds, having worked as a Greyhound vet for several years. When Conformation and Movement trainers were being sought, she and Hector applied and were accepted.

They used a Deerhound skeleton, their first champion - which even travelled with them to a seminar in Holland, thanks to a special DEFRA letter confirming he was rabies-free!

It's been a joy for her to see attendees compare bones on a live dog, like a Saluki or Whippet, with the skeleton and say, "I finally understand front construction!". She now judges several hound breeds and the Hound Group, and she's still learning - that's what keeps it fun.

Fun Fact: Their daughter, aged 7, once asked, "Where's the coupling?" and "Where's the brisket?" after reading their seminar diagrams. She went on to take the POD at Windsor Ch Show and passed - with just one mistake!

Sheila was first encouraged to get involved in training when it was introduced by Eleanor Bothwell, though she waited until she had more time before fully committing. Now a dedicated trainer, she finds it a rewarding way to support others on their journey toward judging their beloved breeds.

Recognising how daunting that path can feel, Sheila is passionate about offering guidance and encouragement to those just starting out. She takes great pride in watching trainees progress, sharing in their enthusiasm, and being part of their development.

RKC File for November

Rule A12

Appeals Tribunal
Rule A12
22 September 2026
Miss Sara Richards

1. This is an appeal from Miss Sara Richards in respect of the Disciplinary Committee decision of 21 July 2026, under Royal Kennel Club Rule A12 relating to Miss Richard's conviction under the Animal Welfare Act 2006. The decision of the under appeal is annexed.
2. The appeal is made against the three year disqualification imposed in respect of following activities;
   i) exhibiting at, taking part in, attending and/or having any connection with any event licensed by the Royal Kennel Club; Rule A11 j (4);
   ii) effecting registrations of any or all dogs and/or progeny of such dogs which are owned and/or registered by her (Rule A11 j 9).
3. The Appeals Tribunal has reviewed the representations made by Miss Richards including the submissions of mitigation, including character references and testimonials. The case id not involve significant welfare issues and Miss Richards had not been subject to any prior convictions or disqualifications. The Tribunal appreciates the personal impact that the circumstances have had upon Miss Richards. The appeal is seeking leniency in terms of the disqualifications imposed. Reference has been made to a previous case which is always informative but the Tribunal must assess a case on the respective individual set of circumstances.
4. The Appeals Tribunal noted Miss Richards extensive experience of breeding dogs. The Tribunal's view is that those who undertake dog breeding must take active steps to understand and comply with the underpinning statutory requirements.
   Being unaware of or misunderstanding the necessary licensing requirements or not obtaining a breeding licence by mistake is not a sufficient answer to non-compliance. The licensing requirements exist to provide proper oversight of breeding practices and animal husbandry. The Tribunals' view is that this is incompatible with and erodes the trust and confidence underlying Royal Kennel Club registration. Therefore it is appropriate that registration activity should be curtailed to give reflection to the conviction. It also feels that it would be incongruent to permit attendance at licensed events during the period of disqualification from the other Royal Kennel Club regulated activities. The Tribunal does not feel able to carve out these activities from the overall disqualification and considers the period of disqualification to be appropriate.
5. The Appeals Tribunal ultimately found no basis upon which to detract from the decision of the Disciplinary Committee. The Tribunal agreed with and endorsed the rationale as articulated by the Committee in the imposition of the penalties and the period of the disqualifications and the appeal was not upheld.

Annex
Disciplinary Committee
21 July 2026
Miss Sara Richards
Royal Kennel Club Rule A12

The Committee having carefully considered the conviction of Sara Richards of Aberdare, Rhondda Cynon Taf for offences under the Animal Welfare Act 2006 from the Merthyr Tydfil Crown Court on 18 March 2026. The Committee impose the following penalties:

1. To disqualify her from exhibiting at, taking part in, attending and/or having any connection with any event licensed by the Club. If any person disqualified under this sub-paragraph shall attend any canine event whilst disqualified the Board shall have the power to increase the period of disqualification [A11 j (4)]
2. To disqualify her from being or becoming a member of any canine club or society registered with or affiliated to the Royal Kennel Club [A11 j (5)]
3. To disqualify her from acting as an Officer or serving on the Committee of any canine society [A11 j (6)]
4. To disqualify her from taking part in the management of any event licensed by the Club [A11 j (7)]
5. To disqualify her from judging at any event licensed by the Club [A11 j (8)]
6. To disqualify her from effecting registrations of any or all dogs and/or progeny of such dogs which are owned and/or registered by her (whether or not jointly owned and/or whether or not owned and/or registered in the name of a nominee) [A11 j (9)]

The suspensions and disqualifications are to be for three (3) years from 21 July 2026.

The Committee noted that Miss Richards pleaded guilty to three charges under the Animal Welfare Act 2006 of carrying on an activity (namely breeding and advertising a business of selling dogs) without the authority of a s.13 licence.

The Court imposed a fine of £250.00

Miss Richards responded to the referral. Miss Richards indicated that the instances arose from (1) a genuine misunderstanding over applicable time periods; (2) two litters being bred by Miss Richards, whilst a third was bred by a joint registered owner under a joint Kennel Name; and (3) an application being made after a bitch had already been mated.

Whilst no significant welfare issues appear to have been reported, Miss Richards has contravened the law as regards licensing requirements and the Committee noted that it appears Miss Richards continued breeding in the knowledge she had not met the licensing requirements.

The Committee's view was that a breeder must ensure that they are fully informed about the breeding licencing requirements and appropriately plan so that they do not breach the requirements – and seek help and advice, perhaps from other breeders or sources of authority.

The objectives which are relevant when making a decision under Rule A12 include:

- the conviction involves conduct prejudicial and discreditable to the interests of the canine world
- to penalise if necessary
- to issue a deterrent to that individual and others
- to issue a marker of seriousness of incident to the canine world
- the protection of the welfare of dogs
- the credibility and standing of Royal Kennel Club/canine activities and the desirability of participation of the convicted person in such activities.

In the context of licensing convictions, the Committee will review the following aspects:

- The court sentence/disqualification orders
- Previous reminders by councils if given and ignored
- Deliberate flouting or inadvertent
- Volume of breeding and use of Royal Kennel Club registrations
- Welfare issues

The Royal Kennel Club does not consider it acceptable not to (or to be ignorant of the need to) comply with the law and not to allow for oversight and controls over animal husbandry and scrutiny of breeding practices via the Local Authority licensing, particularly if engaged in breeding at levels which exceed the threshold for requiring a licence.

It is undermining of responsible breeders who do take the time and trouble and deploy resources to submit themselves to statutory scrutiny via Local Authority Licensing requirements.

The Committee's view was that a three (3) year disqualification from Royal Kennel Club regulated activities is appropriate to reflect the seriousness of the matter.

Disciplinary Committee
24 September 2026
Lisa Murch
Royal Kennel Club Rule A12

The Committee having carefully considered the convictions of Lisa Murch of Bideford, Devon for offences under the Fraud Act 2006 from the Truro Crown Court on 20 April 2026.

The Committee impose the following penalties:

1. To disqualify her from exhibiting at, taking part in, attending and/or having any connection with any event licensed by the Club. If any person disqualified under this sub-paragraph shall attend any canine event whilst disqualified the Board shall have the power to increase the period of disqualification [A11 j (4)]
2. To disqualify her from being or becoming a member of any canine club or society registered with or affiliated to the Royal Kennel Club [A11 j (5)]
3. To disqualify her from acting as an Officer or serving on the Committee of any canine society [A11 j (6)]
4. To disqualify her from taking part in the management of any event licensed by the Club [A11 j (7)]
5. To disqualify her from judging at any event licensed by the Club [A11 j (8)]
6. To disqualify her from effecting registrations of any or all dogs and/or progeny of such dogs which are owned and/or registered by her (whether or not jointly owned and/or whether or not owned and/or registered in the name of a nominee) [A11 j (9)]

The suspensions and disqualifications are to be for Life from 24 September 2026.

The Committee noted that Miss Murch pleaded guilty to two charges of fraud.

The Court imposed on her 15 months imprisonment suspended for 24 months.

The Committee considered that a lifetime disqualification from Royal Kennel Club regulated activities is appropriate to reflect the seriousness of the matter.

Amendment to B Regulations

Proviso to Regulation B2. Annex C to B

4. When Dachshunds of the same variety are mated any dog in the resulting litter shall be entered in the register of the breed to which its coat most closely conforms. This proviso does not allow for the ~~interchange of Dachshunds between the two sizes~~ registration of puppies produced from a mating between the two sizes or between different coat types

(Changes effective immediately)
