The below amendments to the regulations have been approved following a review of the regulations for Matches and Special Events.

Amendment to Regulation F(2)

Regulation F(2)

TO:

Match Regulations

1. A match is a form of competition where judging is by elimination one against one. A match may be intra-club or an inter-club competition between Royal Kennel Club Registered societies.

2. A Royal Kennel Club Registered society may hold up to 12 matches per annum. In the case of clubs which have registered branches, each branch may hold one match per calendar month.

3. ~~Application.~~ Application for authority to hold matches is to be included within the annual returns required under Regulation C.4.a.(1). Separate applications to The Royal Kennel Club for each match is not required. No fee is payable for matches.

4. On the day of the event a current public liability insurance document must be held by the Organisers. ~~or the event will be deemed to be unrecognised.~~

5. Exhibits must be in the registered ownership of one of the members of one of the societies competing in the match. In the case of a dog owned in partnership, each member of such partnership must, at the time of entry, be a member of one of the societies competing in the match.

6. Puppies 4 months of age and over may compete in a match.

7. Dogs, which have won a Challenge Certificate, 5 Reserve Challenge Certificates (under different judges) or obtained any award that counts towards the title of Champion, ~~excluding Reserve Challenge Certificates,~~ under the rules of any governing body recognised by The Royal Kennel Club, are not eligible for entry in matches. However, they are allowed to attend the match and enter a special class restricted to only dogs that have won a Challenge Certificate or obtained any award that counts towards the title of Champion. The winner cannot compete for Best in Match or Best Puppy in Match.

Special Event Regulations

8. Special Events are designated as any breed show related event which cannot be included on the schedule of a normally licensed show due to being invitational and therefore not open to all competitors, or which are not being held at a licensed show. Where competitors qualify for a final via heats held at that and other shows, special event permission must be sought for the final whether it is held in conjunction with a licensed show or as a separate standalone event.

9. The regulations relating to the disqualification and forfeit of awards will apply to these events.

10. Application for permission to hold a special event may be made by any Royal Kennel Club Registered General or Breed Society. A separate application to The Royal Kennel Club for each special event must be made with the appropriate fee.

11. On the day of the event a current public liability insurance document must be held by the Organisers.

General Regulations for Matches and Special Events

12. 4. Jurisdiction and responsibilities. The Officers and Committee Members of the organising society will jointly and severally be liable for the organisation of the Match or Special Event and ensuring that it is run under the rules and regulations of The Royal Kennel Club.

5. Regulations.

~~a.~~ 13. A dog must at the time of entry for a match be solely and unconditionally the property of the exhibitor and must, at the time of competition, be registered in the exhibitor's name at The Royal Kennel Club.

~~b.~~ 14. Separate entry forms must be completed for each exhibitor and must be signed by the exhibitor or his/her authorised agent.

~~c.~~ 15. The committee of the society may reserve the right to refuse any entry on reasonable grounds.

~~d.~~ Exhibits must be the property of the members of one of the societies competing in the match. In the case of a dog owned in partnership, each member of such partnership must, at the time of entry, be a member of one of the societies competing in the match.

~~e.~~ 16. If a dog competes which has been exposed to the risk of any contagious or infectious disease during the period of 21 days prior to a match or special event and/or if any dog shall be proved to be suffering from any contagious or infectious disease, including contagious results of inoculation against distemper, at a match or special event, the owner thereof shall be liable to be dealt with under Royal Kennel Club Rule A11.

~~f.~~ Dogs, which have won a Challenge Certificate or obtained any award that counts towards the title of Champion, excluding Reserve Challenge Certificates, under the rules of any governing body recognised by The Royal Kennel Club, are not eligible for entry in matches. However, they are allowed to attend the match and enter a special class restricted to only dogs that have won a Challenge Certificate or obtained any award that counts towards the title of Champion. The winner cannot compete for Best in Match or Best Puppy in Match.

~~g.~~ Not more than 64 dogs may compete at a match.

~~h.~~ Prize cards, diplomas, rosettes and other printed awards may be awarded at matches but they must be overprinted 'match'.

~~i.~~ Societies are permitted to present special prizes at matches.

~~j.~~ 17. A society shall keep a list of the names of all competing dogs with awards, and the names and addresses of the owners for a period of twelve months from the date of the matches or special event.
