Crufts 2026:

A record breaking celebration of dogs

Crufts 2026 drew to a close on Sunday 8 March after four unforgettable days in Birmingham, where more than 150,000 visitors came together to celebrate the very best of the dog world. From 5-8 March, the NEC Halls were alive with competition, education, entertainment and the unmistakable spirit that makes Crufts the world's greatest celebration of dogs. The weather was overcast but mild for most of the week.

This year marked an exciting milestone as the Royal Kennel Club and Crufts brands appeared side by side for the first time, alongside the launch of Crufts Club, which was met with real enthusiasm from visitors.

Crufts 2026 welcomed 18,698 dogs competing across breed, agility and obedience championships, including a record 4,299 overseas entries - a testament to the show's global appeal.

The top seven group winners

Bruin (Sh Ch Vanitonia Soloist), a Clumber Spaniel, owned, bred and handled by Lee Cox from Somerset was chosen Best in Show by judge Tamás Jakkel (Hungary) from the seven group winners. This marks the first time since 1991 that a Clumber Spaniel has taken the title.

Reserve Best in Show went to the winner of the Hound group; Meghan, a four-year-old Petit Basset Griffon Vendeen (Am/Cro/Fin/Int Ch Black Majesty Some Say), from Croatia, owned and handled by Dr Iva Raic.

The other group winners were won by; the three-year-old Tibetan Mastiff (Dzhozias Viking) owned by Valentin Molnar and handled by Gabriele Stafuzza who was winning the Working group for the second year in a row; Welsh Corgi (Pembroke) (Ch Penliath Bill Me Later (ai)) owned by Nicki and Chris Blance from Essex who topped the Pastoral group; Lakeland Terrier (It Ch Under

The new hall 8

Hall 8 hosted the inaugural Royal Kennel Club Dog Grooming Championships, delivered in partnership with Artero. Across four days, 185 dogs competed in five specialist categories, showcasing the artistry, technical skill and welfare focused standards of professional grooming. The winner of this first event and Best Dog Groomer in Show on the Sunday evening was Hannah Rooney from Middlesborough with Frank, a Wire Fox Terrier winning through from the Handstrip Champion Class.

and agility competitors aged between 6 and 24 demonstrating remarkable confidence, joy and partnership with their dogs - an inspiring glimpse into the future of the sport. Some of the major

April Kennel Gazette

This month's Kennel Gazette features Richard Allen, who joined the Royal Kennel Club Board last year, sharing his experiences in dogs, judging and showing, and his vision for the future. The gallery team highlight a new and eye-catching donation from the late Ann Cambray Coppage, who died last year: four delicate Standard Poodle pastels by Phyllis Binet honouring the legacy of the Vulcan Champagne kennel. Bill Moores recalls how foot-and-mouth disease threatened the show scene 25 years ago. We also turn to life without our beloved dogs, and the ways we keep their memory alive through memorials and keepsakes.

In health matters, we examine worm infestations in dogs, their causes, spread, risks and treatment.

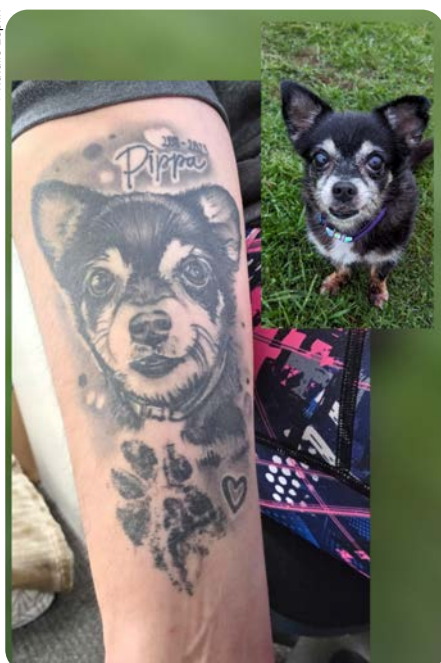

We report on the Royal Kennel Club's 95th Any Variety [except Spaniel (Cocker)] Championship at the beautiful Invermark Estate, a fitting and spectacular setting for the final gundog Championship of the season. Read the latest updates from our public affairs team, results from the Poodle Club's Championship Show marking its 150th anniversary which welcomed judges from Italy and Poland. We also share news from the Lagotto Romagnolo Club of Great Britain as it celebrates 30 years, honouring the breed's working heritage with its inaugural Truffle Trial this November. And of course, spring adventures from our much-loved canine duo, Basil and Blossom, add a touch of fun.

Our breed of the month is the Beagle. Intelligent, alert and sturdy, we trace the breed's fascinating journey from ancient origins to royal connections. The Breed Health Co-ordinator reports on current health challenges, while Beagle Welfare highlights more than 40 years of dedicated work supporting dogs in need. We look back at past Beagle successes at Crufts, including group wins and a Reserve Best in Show, reflect on the Beagle Club's 125th anniversary, view Beagles through the artist's eye, and follow a favourite Beagle-friendly walk in Staffordshire. Enthusiasts share stories of dogs excelling in activities from heelwork to music and scentwork to obedience and therapy work, while nine judges reveal the three favourite Beagles they have judged in the ring.
