Finding a responsible breeder now made easier thanks to new RKC service

Choosing a puppy is a big decision, but finding the right breeder is just as important. The Royal Kennel Club launched a new Find a Breeder service on 2 September, helping prospective puppy owners connect with responsible breeders and start building a relationship before a litter is available.

The searchable online directory enables puppy seekers to find breeders who meet specific eligibility criteria defined by the RKC, start conversations with them before a litter is born, and potentially join waiting lists for future litters. With cute faces online and immediate availability often driving puppy searches, the Royal Kennel Club is encouraging prospective owners to take a step back and put responsible breeding at the heart of their search, launching this new service that allows them to connect with responsible breeders before puppies are available.

Designed to complement the RKC's existing Find a Puppy service, which lists available litters, Find a Breeder supports prospective owners at an earlier stage of the puppy-buying journey. Rather than waiting until puppies are available, prospective owners can now connect with breeders who specialise in their chosen breed at an earlier stage of their puppy-buying journey, giving them more time to ask questions, learn about the breed and find out about plans for future litters.

Breeders featured on the service have applied to join and are reviewed against criteria defined by the RKC, including meeting the RKC's Good Practice health standard for relevant litters (where applicable) and breeding only breed standard colours.

Charlotte McNamara, Chief Canine Wellbeing & Engagement Officer at the Royal Kennel Club, said: "The best puppy searches start before the puppy has even been born. Find a Breeder has been designed to give puppy seekers greater confidence by connecting them with breeders who meet Royal Kennel Club-defined health standards.

"Breeders also benefit from being able to gauge future demand, build waiting lists and develop strong relationships with prospective puppy owners before a litter is born.

"We are committed to setting the high standards dogs deserve by supporting responsible breeding and making sure accessible services are available to all, helping to ensure the future of healthy dogs."

Royal Kennel Club appoints Edition Media Ltd to deliver new member publication

The Royal Kennel Club (RKC) has appointed Edition Media Ltd to produce its new member publication. It is introducing a new publishing model which is sustainable for the longer term and delivers greater value for its members.

The change follows a review of the publishing operation which revealed it had become unsustainable in its current form. Following a competitive tender process, Edition Media Ltd has been appointed to deliver the new publication, which will bring together the Kennel Gazette, Journal and Field Trials Newsletter into one publication, creating a more modern, accessible and sustainable offering for members and the wider dog community. This is as a result of feedback in various forms from our membership.

The new Gazette will represent the full breadth of the RKC community, with greater coverage of field trials, working activities, YRKC, agility and other dog activities, breeding, health and welfare, while showing remains prominent. Members and the wider RKC community (including clubs, councils, secretaries and overseas Kennel Clubs) will help shape the Gazette through their stories and content.

Bringing the three publications together will reduce duplication, create a more sustainable model, grow readership and ultimately generate revenue rather than operate solely as a cost to the organisation.

Edition Media Ltd have strong publishing experience, an understanding of its community and the ability to support the publication's long-term growth and sustainability. This new structure also provides appropriate governance and oversight, ensuring the publication remains aligned with the RKC's objectives, reduces costs and ensures the expertise and flexibility to future proof its existence.

Edition Media Ltd brings more than 25 years' experience in passion-led publishing and currently produces Edition Dog, which has more than 30,000 subscribers. Its team has strong roots in the dog showing community, alongside extensive experience in creating publications for engaged, specialist audiences.

Jannine Edgar, Chief Executive, Royal Kennel Club, said: "We are changing our approach to the publication to ensure its long-term sustainability and to make sure it continues to deliver for our members.

"The Kennel Gazette has a proud history, but we need to make sure our publications continue to evolve alongside our members and the wider dog community. Bringing the Gazette, Journal and Field Trials Newsletter together gives us a stronger, more sustainable publication with a clear purpose for the future.

"We also want the publication to properly reflect the breadth of our community. Showing remains an important part of what we do, but our members are involved in a huge range of activities and disciplines, and we want to give all these communities a platform.

"Edition Media Ltd brings the publishing expertise and understanding of the dog community that we were looking for. We're looking forward to working with them to deliver a publication that is engaging, relevant and sustainable for our members for years to come."

Jennifer Dow, Managing Director, Edition Media Ltd, said: "We are incredibly proud to have been entrusted with the Royal Kennel Club's new member publication. The Kennel Gazette has a long and important history, and as people who are passionate about dog showing, we know how much it means to so many within the community.

"We're really excited about what comes next and look forward to working closely with the Royal Kennel Club, its members and the wider community to build on that heritage and take the new publication forward."

The new online-first publication is expected to launch in January 2027, with printed copies also available by request for the first three months. Further details to be announced in due course.

Crufts 2027 to introduce third judge for Labrador Retrievers and Golden Retrievers

The Royal Kennel Club will introduce a third judge for Labrador Retrievers and Golden Retrievers at Crufts 2027, following the consistently high entry numbers received for both breeds.

The change has been made to help streamline the judging process, significantly reducing the overall time required to judge these popular breeds. The additional judge will help alleviate pressure on judges and stewards, create a more manageable schedule, and provide a better experience for exhibitors and their dogs.

By sharing the judging workload across three judges, the improvement hopes to reduce the need for very early starts and ensure judging is completed more comfortably within the day, while maintaining the highest standards of competition.

The third judges (Miss AG Cooper for Golden Retrievers and Miss MAE Persson for Labrador Retrievers) will oversee the following classes:

- Good Citizen Dog Scheme
- Minor Puppy
- Puppy
- Field Trial
- Special Working

The principal judges, Miss M Neil (Golden Retriever Dogs), Mrs SM Zubair (Golden Retriever Bitches), Mrs L Tooth (Labrador Retriever Dogs) and Mrs L Heron (Labrador Retriever Bitches) will continue to judge the remaining classes for their respective sexes:

- Junior
- Yearling
- Undergraduate
- Graduate
- Post Graduate
- Mid Limit
- Limit
- Open
- Veteran

Winners from all classes will then compete for the Challenge Certificate in each sex, with the Challenge Certificate and subsequent awards being decided by the two scheduled judges in the usual way.

Both breeds will be allocated a third ring which will be in close proximity to the usual two large rings.

This decision follows careful consideration by the Crufts Committee, which has long been aware of the substantial entries attracted by Labrador Retrievers and Golden Retrievers, as well as the challenges associated with judging such large numbers within the available timeframe.

The introduction of a third judge is intended to ease the demands placed on judges and stewards while providing a more positive experience for exhibitors and their dogs.

Crufts Chairman, Tom Mather, said: "The introduction of a third judge will help reduce the overall length of judging for these breeds, making the day more manageable for everyone involved. We hope the decision will lead to a happier, less stressful day for judges, stewards, exhibitors and, most importantly, the dogs. By reducing the need for a very early start, we can improve the overall experience while ensuring the judging process continues to run efficiently and to the high standards expected at Crufts."

Anna McMorris MP and Cadi crowned Westminster Dog of the Year 2026

Anna McMorris and her Cocker Spaniel, Cadi, have been crowned Westminster Dog of the Year 2026, celebrating the special bond between MPs and their canine companions.

The Labour MP for Cardiff North, and her seven-year-old Cocker Spaniel, were named the winners of this year's Westminster Dog of the Year, held at Victoria Tower Gardens on 10 September.

The annual event, organised by the Royal Kennel Club and Dogs Trust, brings together MPs and their dogs to celebrate the companionship, joy and wellbeing that dogs bring to our lives.

The winning pair captured the judges' attention thanks to Cadi's people skills, her enthusiastic personality, and the bond she shared with Anna.

This year's Westminster Dog of the Year theme was 'A Good Life Together & A Lifetime Commitment', highlighting the joy that dogs bring to our lives and the lifelong commitment of responsible dog ownership.

The event also provided an opportunity for participants and attendees to learn more about responsible dog ownership, including the importance of responsible breeding, training and socialisation in helping dogs to enjoy happy and healthy lives.

Anna and Cadi beat competition from 15 other pairs from constituencies across the UK. Finishing in second place were Karl Turner, Independent MP for Kingston upon Hull East, and his Bichon Frisé, Charlie, while Bobby Dean, Liberal Democrat MP for Carshalton and Wallington, and his Goldendoodle, Chester, took third place.

Each entrant was scored out of 10 by the judging panel on their handling skills and the bond they share with their dog, before being asked three questions reflecting this year's theme, their dog's story and their commitment to improving dog welfare through their work in Parliament.

Commenting on her win, Anna said: "Cadi and I are thrilled to win Westminster Dog of the Year! Cadi loves coming with me wherever I go. She's a true member of the family and is loved by the community too. She really brightens up everyone's day and has been my support through the ups and downs of being a politician! Now we're off to celebrate her win with a doggy treat!"

Jannine Edgar, Chief Executive, Royal Kennel Club, said: "Many congratulations to Anna and Cadi on being crowned Westminster Dog of the Year 2026. Their special bond has been a joy to witness, and they are thoroughly deserving of the title. It is wonderful to see that bond between a dog and their owner celebrated here at Westminster.

"I would also like to thank Dogs Trust, all the MPs and their dogs for taking part today. Westminster Dog of the Year is a fantastic opportunity to celebrate the joy and companionship that dogs bring to our lives, while also highlighting the importance of responsible dog ownership and giving our dogs the happy, healthy lives they deserve."

Jayne Whitton, Chief Marketing Communications Officer at Dogs Trust, said: "Seeing Anna and Cadi take home the title today is a great reminder of the strong relationships we share with our pets. Events like Westminster Dog of the Year allow us to celebrate that joy while continuing to bring attention to the importance of responsible ownership, animal welfare, and the lifelong commitment our dogs rely on us to keep. Huge congratulations to both of them and thank you to all the fantastic canine competitors and MPs who joined us today."

The event also featured a public vote to find the 'Sir David Amess Pawblic Vote' winner. The award is named in memory of the late Conservative MP, who was a staunch advocate for Westminster Dog of the Year and campaigned tirelessly to improve and protect dog welfare throughout his life.

The winner of the Sir David Amess Pawblic Vote was Ben Obese-Jecty, MP for Huntingdon, and his five-year-old mixed-breed rescue dog, Leto.

Ben said: "Absolutely wonderful to receive the public vote today, it means a lot. It's lovely to think that Leto has captured everyone's imagination with her back story. Fantastic to see how the public are really engaged in these stories of how we can adopt and rescue dogs who otherwise wouldn't get this same chance at life."

Obedience judging and competing on the same day guidance

From 1 October 2026 the Royal Kennel Club is commencing a 12 month regulation suspension to the Competitive Obedience regulations which will mean that judges and stewards of a class (other than Championship C class) will be allowed to enter one class with one dog (other than Championship C class) on the same day that they are officiating. This 12 month regulation suspension is in response to a survey by the Obedience Liaison Council (OLC) designed to address the lack of judges and stewards and to identify what may incentivise them to judge/steward. The OLC is looking at a number of other measures to increase the number of judges.

Guidance

Judges and stewards will enter the show as normal through the normal way. At the closing of entries the show processor will collate a list of judges and stewards who are also entered in a class. At the beginning of the day they will inform the Chief Steward that they are also competing. They will place a note on their scoreboard table informing the competitors in the class they are officiating at of the time they will be away from the ring. This must be a maximum of thirty minutes and if both judge and steward are competing this must be at the same time. They will also inform the ring they are going to compete in of what time they wish to present themselves for judging so that they are aware of and accommodate the time they will come.

Judges and stewards who are competing will be excluded from any running order. The regulation suspension applies to all licenced Competitive Obedience shows. Feedback will be gathered by the OLC from the Obedience Community to assess the success of the regulation suspension at the end of the trial to determine next steps.

Community Guidance for the RKC Trial to permit Rally Judges to compete at competitions where they are also judging

The trial will start on 1 October 2026 with a review date of 31 December 2027.

For the duration of the trial, S201 will be relaxed enabling judges to compete their dogs at the same licensed competition that they are officiating where it will not impact on the smooth running of the event. This will be subject to the following guidelines.

Guidelines

- Competition Organisers may accept entries from judges to compete with their own dogs on the same day they are judging, noting that the judge's official role always takes precedence over working their own dogs.
- Judges may submit no more than three entries on the day they are judging.
- If agreed by the Competition Organisers judges may enter their normal standard and/or special classes – noting that they must withdraw from any class on or before the day which clashes or conflicts in any way with their judging appointment.
- Judges whose classes are scheduled to start at the beginning of the competition must complete all of their judging obligations before engaging in any activity related to competing with their own dog (e.g. course walking). Judges' obligations include signing certificates and awards being made to other competitors. Competition Organisers to note that awards should be available to competitors as soon as possible after each class is completed.
- Judges whose classes are scheduled to start later in the day must be ready to withdraw as a competitor from any classes entered, but not yet worked, as soon as their ring space becomes available. As soon as their ring space becomes available they must prioritise their official role as judge. This includes abandoning any run offs, withdrawing from any classes which clash – including walk throughs. Any certificates/awards earned should be collected after their own judging is completed.

- Judges must not expect that they will automatically be able to work all rounds entered. Circumstances on the day may mean that arrangements have to be altered and the smooth running of the competition always takes priority.
- Judges on their initial appointments should consider whether they will be able to give sufficient attention to their judging obligations.
- To reduce the likelihood of timing conflicts judges are advised to enter near to or on the closing date to assist Competition Organisers when considering capping, splitting, and ring layout planning.
- Competition Organisers may choose to accept judges' entries after the closing date as long as it is before the class lists are published.
- Where possible Competition Organisers should try to adopt a consistent approach across their event regarding whether judges' entries will be accepted. Each entry received from a judge should be reviewed on an individual basis before acceptance.
- Competition Organisers retain the right to refuse entries from judges at their competition if they believe it will not work at their venue. This must be stated on the judge's invitations for that competition and referenced in the post competition report to the RKC. (Please refer to Annexes A & B below.)
- Competition organisers may decline judges' entries where they would necessitate a split in the class.

News from the Royal Kennel Club

Obedience judging and competing on the same day guidance - continued

Eligible classes

For the duration of the trial where a judge is contracted to judge their lowest eligible class they may enter their subsequent higher level class but no further higher level classes.

For example if a judge is contracted to judge Level 3 and they have a Level 3 dog then they cannot enter Level 3 (as they are judging it) but they may enter Level 4, however, they still cannot enter Level 5 or 6.

Where a class splits into 2 or more parts, the Competition Organiser may accept an entry for a part which they are not judging. Continuing with the above example if Level 3 splits into 2 parts and the judge is judging Part 1 they may enter Part 2.

Capped Classes at Competitions

The requirement that entries must be processed in the order in which they are received is relaxed for judges' entries only during this trial period - where classes are capped, Competition Organisers should consider any judges' entries after the close of entries where space is still available, rather than at date of receipt. Competition Organisers may make use of the 10% upwards adjustment to fulfil judges' entries where necessary.

Complimentary or Paid Entries

Competition Organisers should carefully consider their budget, planning and other management issues. Where judges have paid at the point of entry the society should endeavour to refund fees for any reasonable entries which they cannot honour.

Trial Monitoring & Reporting

During the trial period Secretaries must complete the Reporting Form (attached as Annex B) listing all judges who competed at their competition and detailing the judge's name, the level judged, the number of classes entered and subsequently worked. If no judges competed on the day which they were officiating then the form should state this. This form should accompany the incident report.

Any disruption to the smooth running of the competition, however minor, relating to judges competing on the day where they are judging must be entered in the incident book.

Health Surveys

Breed and aim of survey

Further information

Breeders

The research study focuses on the moral, emotional, and workplace experiences of people who currently work or volunteer, or previously worked or volunteered, in animal-related fields. By including many sectors together, and reaching areas of animal-related work that have rarely been studied, the research can examine both what is shared across animal-related work and what is distinct to particular fields. Participants from under-studied areas, particularly breeders, are especially encouraged to take part, as voices from these sectors are rarely, if ever, represented in this research.

Surrey

Sue Finnett

SEMINARS:

- Points of The Dog
- Conformation and Movement

When Sue first started showing dogs, she quickly realised she needed to understand conformation and movement to improve her chances. She practised with her own Deerhounds and racing Greyhounds, having worked as a Greyhound vet for several years. When Conformation and Movement trainers were being sought, she and Hector applied and were accepted.

They used a Deerhound skeleton, their first champion - which even travelled with them to a seminar in Holland, thanks to a special DEFRA letter confirming he was rabies-free!

It's been a joy for her to see attendees compare bones on a live dog, like a Saluki or Whippet, with the skeleton and say, "I finally understand front construction!". She now judges several hound breeds and the Hound Group, and she's still learning - that's what keeps it fun.

Fun Fact: Their daughter, aged 7, once asked, "Where's the coupling?" and "Where's the brisket?" after reading their seminar diagrams. She went on to take the POD at Windsor Ch Show and passed - with just one mistake!

He has been at the forefront of judges education since 1980, and his column, 'Speakers'

Sheila has been involved in showing and breeding Tibetan Spaniels for more years than she cares to remember. With over two decades on the Scottish Kennel Club committee, she remains actively engaged at all levels of the dog show world. She currently serves as Vice-Chairman of a breed club, Chairman of a general canine society, and Secretary of another.

Sheila was first encouraged to get involved in training when it was introduced by Eleanor Bothwell, though she waited until she had more time before fully committing.

Now a dedicated trainer, she finds it a rewarding way to support others on their journey toward judging their beloved breeds.

Recognising how daunting that path can feel, Sheila is passionate about offering guidance and encouragement to those just starting out. She takes great pride in watching trainees progress, sharing in their enthusiasm, and being part of their development.

Fun Fact: When she's not working with dogs, Sheila's often tending to her garden.

David's interest in pedigree dogs began in 1995 when his family welcomed their first Labrador. Showing became a passion around five years later. His two main showing breeds today are Gordon Setters and Weimaraners, in which he has owned champions, group winners, and Best in Show winners. He has also owned an Irish Setter and a Pointer Champion, and currently shares his home with Border Terriers and a Whippet.

He is passed to award Challenge Certificates in twelve gundog breeds and the Gundog Group at championship level. As a Royal Kennel Club Accredited Trainer for all seminars, he particularly enjoys working with up-and-coming judges, sharing knowledge and experience to support their growth and confidence.

Fun Fact: David maintains a successful flock of Shetland Sheep - which he also shows, of course! They have received numerous top awards and consistently achieved leading prices at breed society sales.

Rule A11

Disciplinary Committee 21 July 2026

Mrs Amy Baranzeck

The Committee, having carefully considered the evidence, find that the complaint brought under Royal Kennel Club Rule A11 a (1) (b) against Mrs Baranzeck, is upheld.

Mrs Baranzeck behaved discredibly or prejudicially to the interests of the canine world in that she made social media comments encouraging the circumvention of Crufts ticketing controls; undermining measures ultimately designed to regulate venue capacity and attendance levels. Mrs Baranzeck's post suggested using duplicate tickets already issued to gain entry to the event.

The Committee impose the following penalties:

1. To warn her as to her future conduct [A11 j (1)]
2. To censure her [A11 j (2)]
3. To disqualify her from exhibiting at, taking part in, attending and/or having any connection with any event licensed by the Royal Kennel Club. If any person disqualified under this sub-paragraph shall attend any canine event whilst disqualified the Board shall have the power to increase the period of disqualification [A11 j (4)]

The suspensions and disqualifications are to be for the period of nine (9) months from 21 July 2026.

The Committee, following the impositions of these penalties, would draw the attention of the Respondent to the effect of Rule A11 sub-sections l and n.

The Committee was in receipt of Mrs Baranzeck's response to the Complaint in which she offered sincere apologies. The post had not been intended as a serious suggestion and Mrs Baranzeck did not realise that it would be misinterpreted.

The Committee was of the view that the post needed to be addressed. The post was careless and lacked insight into the impact of the comments.

The penalty imposed is intended to reflect that the comments were unacceptable in the context of Royal Kennel Club licensed events where ticketing controls are designed to regulate venue capacity, attendance levels and ultimately the safety of all those involved.

The case only highlights the risks in posting comments on social media which can be misinterpreted and carry unintended consequences. In such context, social media can be 'tone deaf'. It is not the intention that matters but the impact of what is written.
